

INTO YOSEMITE FROM TONOPAH

EXCELLENT WORK OF A BUICK IN A GREAT HILL CLIMBING EXPLOIT

CAMP CURRY, Yosemite Valley, August 5.—After driving from Los Angeles to Tioga pass without a motor stop, C. A. Branaman has just brought to the touring bureau at Camp Curry the report that the road via Owens and Mono lakes is in very good condition. Branaman's running time from Los Angeles to the pass was twenty hours and eighteen minutes. The night under guard when the party stopped for a rest at Bishop, bringing up the running time for the motor to thirty-three hours and eighteen minutes.

Branaman had previously made the trip over the Midland trail through Goldfield and Tonopah, and states that the road is in good condition and has been well signed by the Automobile Club of Southern California. At Big Pine the Nevada motorist bound for Yosemite turns to the right, leaving the Midland trail for El Camino Sierra. Nevada parties find Bishop a convenient stopping place for the first night. The new road around the Sherman grade is not yet open and cars are still obliged to make the climb over the hill. Branaman said, "The roads through Round valley and Long valley are in very good condition. At Eaton's ranch the motorist may turn to the left, taking the Casa Diablo road, or he may continue toward Mono lake via Indiana Summit. The Casa Diablo route is shorter, but more difficult, and Branaman states that most of the traffic is going by way of Indiana Summit, where the road is in good shape. Hammond's, near Mono postoffice, offers accommodations for the second night.

Describing the climb to the top of Tioga pass, Branaman said: "At the bottom of Leaning creek grade the elevation is 7000 feet. In six miles of steady climbing over the most wonderful mountain road in America, the Buick reached the elevation of 9941 feet. As we climbed the final height the snow covered peaks which had seemed low in the distance loomed up like gigantic walls. It was difficult to see how any engineering ingenuity could get a road over that frozen barrier. But the Buick climbed on till it reached the wind swept summit and then scooted down to Tuolumne meadows."

From the top of the divide to the Yosemite valley the grades are nearly all in favor of the motorist bound for Yosemite and the road has been put in good condition by the park authorities. Distances between the principal points along the road
